Wrangell Gets Two More Boats

Alameda And Northwestern To Ply Inside Route

Seattle, July 7.—At a conference held in the office of the Alaska Steamship company this morning, at which nearly every official connected with the transportation concern was present, it was decided to hereafter make the route of the big steamers Alameda and Northwestern to Southeastern Alaska by way of the inside passage, Southeastern Alaska, with stops at Ketchikan, Wrangell and Juneau, as do the Admiral Sampson and Bertha of the Alaska Coast Co., a rival concern. The announcement closely follows on the heels of the statement of the Alaska Coast Co. to build a liner to alternate with the Admiral Sampson in running to Southwestern Alaska.

Tomorrow night the Alameda will sail for Cordova, Valdez and Seward, but will take the outside passage. On her southbound trip however, the Alameda will skirt the southern coast of Alaska and will touch the inside passage first at Juneau. The Northwestern sailing north in a week, will make the entire trip over the route planned this morning. The Alaska Steamship Co., alive to the advantages in business which are obtained by a Southeastern-Southwestern route, are surely making a strong bid for Southeastern Alaska business.—Alaska Dispatch.

Local Shops Busy

The amount of boat-building, repairing and altering that is being done in Wrangell every season is remarkable. Never have they been more so than this year. Many large launches have been recently built and the shops are kept busy with repair and alternation work.

On account of this rush of work, "Billie" Niell, rather than lose weeks of valuable time waiting his turn in the local shops, decided to take chances and have the necessary alterations of his river-boat, Telegraph, made in Ketchikan where the shops are not so busy.

Old Alaskan Pioneer Dead

Wm. Dillman Passes Away At The Home Of Al Osborne

On Wednesday afternoon, Wm. Dillman, one of the old pioneers of this section, died at the home of Al Osborne, where he had been cared for since brought in from his place on Brown's Island, about a month ago.

Dillman came to this country in April, 1887, from Grant County, Oregon. Since coming here he has cooked some for camps but has generally followed trapping and of late has been living on Brown's Island, where he had cleared some land and built a cabin.

Of the early life of Wm. Dillman, little is known. He is thought to be about eighty years old.

Earthquake Not Serious

That the recent earthquake at San Francisco was greatly misrepresented by the Seattle papers is proven by letters received at Wrangell since the quake. K. C. Schmidt, whose family was in San Francisco at the time, received communication stating that only slight injury or loss of life was experienced. One large crockery establishment reports slight loss of stock and one or two of the largest buildings are slightly out of plumb.

Telegraph System Is Inspected

Major D. J. Carr, Chief of U. S. Signal Service, was in Wrangell Saturday on the Admiral Sampson and inspected the Cable and Wireless station here.

Major Carr is inspecting all the cable and wireless telegraph systems in Alaska.

Collins Resigns

J. F. Collins, United States Marshall of this city, handed in his resignation Saturday. There is much speculation as to who the next marshall will be; and it is quite possible that we will be without a regular marshall for some time.

Vermont Arrives

The Vermont, owned by the Vermont Marble Company, arrived at Wrangell Saturday. The Vermont is fifty feet long with a thirteen foot beam and is equipped with a twenty-five h. p. Union motor.

Capt. Clair Snyder, who operates the boat for the Vermont Marble Company, and who brought the boat from Tacoma, where she was built, reports a fine trip from Tacoma up. The distance was covered in seven days, having started on the 1st arriving here on the 8th and laying over one day enroute for repairs.

Capt. Snyder was accompanied on the trip by William Snyder, Frank Farrer and Oscar Carlson. The boat will be used to carry men and supplies between the different camps of the company.

Hiller-Lindsay Success

All those who were present at the Hiller-Lindsay Concert, last Thursday evening, may well class themselves among the fortune-favored for it is not often that Alaskans are given an opportunity to enjoy such music as Miss Cassie Morris Hillef drew from her violin on that occasion. The singing of Miss Lindsay and the accompaniment by Mrs. Hillef were of the highest grade. This Concert Company deserves the greatest success, in Alaska or anywhere.

Alaska Liner To Be Built

Admiral Sampson Teammate Is Strong Probability

Seattle July 6.—From information gleaned from officials of the Alaska Steamship Co., it is gathered that the company has ordered submitted bids for the construction of an ocean liner, similar to the plans on which the fast greyhound Admiral Sampson is built. The new boat may be built either by the Moran Co., in Seattle, or in San Francisco. At any rate the Bertha is to be taken from the Alaska fun and the new boat will keep pace with the Admiral Sampson on the Southeastern Alaska run.—Alaska Dispatch.

A-B Local Prospers

The local A-B organization which was started only about two weeks ago is having the best of success. The meetings are well attended and much interest is manifested by the members. New members are initiated at each meeting.

The Way Independence Day Was Celebrated At Wrangell

Quite early in the morning, Without a drop or fall, George Northrup got right out of bed

And blew the Bugle Call Which woke the population, And enrobed in their best

They congregated quietly

To hear the Mayor's address;

And then our Rev. Corser

Offered up a prayer

That would touch the hearts of people

Almost anywhere

And the children sang "America",

Which was good and true,

And after the services,

There was just one thing to do,

It was to go and watch the races

And have a jolly time;

The 4th, it comes just once a year,

Excuse me for this rhyme.

—BOBBY BURNS.

St. Philips Church

"Peace or War, Can Nations Get Along Without War?" will be the theme of the address at St. Philip's church Sunday evening July 16.

Sidewalk Progresses

Seven hundred feet of the sidewalk to the cemetery is receiving its finishing touch of a gravel surface. When the gravel gets firmly packed it will remain hard in any kind of weather. The ditch on the upper side of the walk is doing good service in running off surplus surface water that has heretofore kept the trail soft.

While seven hundred feet lacks much of a finished walk, the example of this finished portion will be a stimulus for further effort and it is to be hoped that the good work can go on.

Marvie Hoff goes to Ketchikan next week to install a new Model 1 Linotype machine in the office of the Ketchikan Miner, it being the intention of Publisher Bushell to shortly publish a daily paper.—Alaska Dispatch,

States Briefs

The celebration on July 4th, has claimed a total of thirty-eight lives. 1227 injuries have been reported. Fireworks are responsible for eighteen victims, firearms twelve, powder five and toy pistols three.

Two amateur boatbuilders of Centraillia, Washington, built a speed-boat that distanced Puget Sound champions at a recent meet at Olympia.

The heat wave in the Eastern states is very bad but if it succeeds in shortening the debate on reciprocity many will feel less antagonistic toward it.

The government is preparing to wage extensive war against the coal trusts. Special attention will be given the railroads that control coal mines.

On July 7th, the Santa Rosa, belonging to the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, was wrecked off Point Arguella. Four seamen are reported dead. The Captain is blamed by the passengers for not landing them when the boat struck.

Bishop Rowe's Visit

Bishop Rowe's week in Wrangell was a busy one. It opened with a native service on Thursday evening. The service on Friday evening was largely attended, the theme of the sermon was the meaning of the communion. The communion table is undenominational. No organization can lay sole claim to it. It is the Master's table and there the ideal of unity can be realized, there all are alike.

Saturday evening a public reception was given to the Bishop at the gymnasium. It was largely attended, and a very pleasant two hours was passed. The Boy Scouts gave a short drill which was followed by a few words from the Bishop, congratulating Wrangell on such an organization.

Sunday morning Holy Communion was celebrated. More people were at the communion than ever before in the history of the church. Sunday evening was the last service held by the Bishop. The church was crowded, the theme was "Being one in Christ Jesus." The idea of equality was something very foreign at the age in which Paul lived. Then it was that there were hard and fixed rules of caste. These have been broken down, and today Christianity is endeavoring to break down modern caste distinctions, so that the ideal of the brotherhood of man can be realized. A liberal offering was taken up for Diocesan work, and a class of thirteen were confirmed.

Bishop and Mrs. Rowe left on the Dolphin for Juneau and will visit afterwards Skagway, Sitka and Valdez.

Bishop Rowe expects to visit Washington next summer to make an appeal to congress for some much needed legislation in behalf of the Indians of Alaska.

Nyal's Salve Heals Without a Scar

Can you imagine anything more annoying and embarrassing than to think your burns, cuts, or running sore is healing nicely and then have an unsightly scar?

Take no chances—no matter what the cause of the wound, cut, burn, or running sore, remember that Nyal's Salve always heals by first intention—it will not leave a scar.

NYAL'S SALVE

is a powerful antiseptic—it absorbs all scar flesh, nourishes broken down tissue and the result is a firm, healthy, true skin.

Wash with hot water and pure castile soap—apply the salve—change the dressing twice a day and the wound will heal without trace of scar.

Enough for the whole family
